Missionaries in His service 'til He comes

June 25, 2015

Dear Partners in the Faith,

You may never know what your teaching will develop into when you teach your class of little children. That is why we should include the Gospel followed up by an invitation after each lesson for them to receive the Saviour. Please read the letter below of a girl that Carol led to the Lord soon after we arrived in the Philippines in 1980. P P P P P

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Brown,

How are you? Praying all is well with your household.

This is Mia Peralta (Smallwood), I'm baby sister to Pastor Jerome Peralta and Aldo Peralta, we met in 1980, when you came to La Loma, Q.C. Philippines. Mrs. Brown, you were my Sunday School teacher, and everything about Jesus that you planted in me, stayed with me, even when I backslid, but I stayed in love with Jesus. And today, 35 years later, I'm married to a wonderful Christian man, who loves Jesus like I do. I still have a lot to learn and improve on in my Christian life, but I'm proud to say, that everyday I try to live and be a good Christian. I sing in the choir and volunteer in other ministry when I can.

Praying for your safety, health, and happiness.

Mia Smallwood
(Peralta)

It's always a joy to receive cards like this from those we have led to the Lord and to hear they are continuing to grow in the faith.

Jesus came to seek and to save those who are lost. (Luke 19:10) Before He ascended into heaven, 40 days after His resurrection He said "As the Father hath sent me even so send I you." (Jon 20:21)

As Jesus came to do the Father's business, we are also to do the Father's business. We are to share our faith in Christ with those around us; next door, Walmart, CVS, Sunday School Class, the mailman etc., etc.

Thank you for standing with us with your faithful prayer and financial support.

In His service 'til He comes, -still active
